

M. & F. ACADEMY Providence, Kentucky.

- 1 A School for those who desire to teach or to enter college.
- 2 Courses leading to the County and the State Examination.
- 3 Classes in the Higher Branches will be organized when the number desiring to take is sufficient to justify a class, and the need demands it.
- 4 A strict but easy running discipline.
- 5 Under the present management this Institution has prepared a sufficient number of young people for teaching in the public schools and for entering college to instruct nearly or quite all the children in a whole congressional district at one time.
- 6 Excellent opportunities for young people to do light housekeeping and attend the Academy and thereby reduce the cost of attending school to the lowest possible figures.
- 7 In many respects the Institution is far superior to any college for young people in general. Investigate before deciding to attend elsewhere.
- 8 School opens on Monday, Sept. 5, 1910, and continues nine months—until the first teachers examination.
- 9 Correspondence solicited.

Very Respectfully,
J. Y. BROWN,
Principal M. and F. Academy.

A FATHERS SORROW

Mr. M. H. Crippen of Los Angeles, Cal., father of Dr. Crippen, who is being taken back to England to stand trial for the murder of his wife thus pours out the anguish of his soul: "I have not the money to go to Hawley, but if I had I would gladly go and be of whatever consolation I might be to him. I have not received a word from him and do not expect to. It is hard to have to be alone and suffer, but I don't think it will last long. I am not long for this world. I feel as if I would like to go away alone and die. I did my best to educate Hawley, and his son. I did the best I could and now in my old age I am alone and overwhelmed by this disgrace."

The words of the stricken old man recall the pathetic lament of David over Absalom. Sad that the son did not think of his poor old father when he was yielding to the temptations that resulted in this international crime! But the publicity given to Dr. Crippen's flight will serve as a useful purpose. It will teach anew, first, that the wages of sin is death. Second, that there is little hope of escape from the lashes of conscience. Third, that one does not live unto himself alone.

If the child would only think of the parent and the parent's indissoluble connection with all that effects the child's career there would be less sorrow in the old home. And there is a lesson for the parent, too. It is not sufficient to "educate" the children—moral development must go hand in hand with mental growth. The child must learn that there is more in life than money and physical enjoyment—there is duty. No person is safe until he understands that he was created for a purpose, that he must learn and pursue that purpose, conscious at all times of his responsibility to God for every thought and word and act. If Dr. Crippen's father did not sufficiently emphasize the moral element in his son's development his grief will be the more bitter now; if the fault is entirely with the son the fact that he rejected his father's advice will make his present punishment more acute.

REAPING THE WHIRLWIND

One would suppose from the manner in which the liquor organs gloat over the action of the Nebraska democratic state convention that the brewers had won a great victory, but did they? They kept the last legislature from submitting that initiative and referendum and planned to prevent it in the next, but with all three parties in favor of this reform the brewers are helpless and hopeless. They have robbed the democratic party of the credit it would have derived from securing this great and needed reform, but cannot control enough senators to over-ride the platforms of all the parties. Are they happy? The friends of the initiative and referendum are rejoicing at the early, easy and complete victory which they have won.

And what about county option? If the brewers had permitted the submission of the referendum at the last session or at a special session county option could not have been submitted under it before 1912; but now it seems likely that it will come by statute this winter. Won't it tackle the brewers to get county option two years sooner than it could have come under the initiative and referendum, and then get the initiative and referendum besides?

But that is the natural result of their impudent and insolent entry into politics. They will possibly learn after awhile that the more active the liquor interests are in politics the more they will disgust the public and the more vigorous will be the protest from the voters. If they insist upon sowing the wind they must expect to reap the whirlwind. If they could by any possibility defeat county option they will simply hasten state prohibition—not because a majority as the people desire it, but because the people will not submit to the domination of the liquor interest.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A SWEET CHILD

In Far-Away Portland, Oregon and
The six days Sad Trip Home
With Her Remains

Little Lemah C. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. L. Nunn died at their home in Portland, Oregon August 5th, aged four years, six months and 21 days having been born Jan. 15, 1906. She died of what the physician said was acute indigestion, having been sick but a few hours.

The remains were brought here for burial, leaving Portland, Monday Aug. 8th arriving here Saturday at 11 o'clock Aug. 13. The remains were conveyed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Tucker where the funeral was preached at 5 o'clock by Rev. J. B. Adams, the interment taking place immediately afterwards at New Marion cemetery.

Little Lemah was a wonderful sweet child and the idol of her parents. Little the parents, happy in their love for their only child, thought when they left last fall for the far West that their home coming would prove so sad.

The great number of beautiful and costly floral gifts showed in what high esteem little Lemah and the family were held by the people of Marion.

Watch for our next weeks special sale advertisement.

THE RECORD-PRESS PRIZE CONTEST

Next Count Will be Made As Previously Advertised Saturday
August 27.

On account of being crowded for space we have been leaving out the contest vote as it would prove of little interest until next count Aug. 27th. But as many would like to compare that they may get some idea of the big count Saturday week when another Ten Dollars in Gold will be given, we republish it.

Now it is with you to say who will win the next Ten Dollars. The contest is on in earnest and we are going to do everything we promised.

Every body seems interested in their candidate and in many instances more than the candidate. For instance we received a money order the other day for six dollars for the vote to go to a young lady who has never shown any interest. Now this girl could easily get out and win the Ten Dollars in Gold or the second prize of ten thousand votes.

Remember on Saturday week the first prize for the lady making the greatest gain since last count will be Ten Dollars in Gold and the second prize will be a coupon for 10,000 votes.

Now as the Record-Press is given up to be a good paper, let every candidate get to work and see that no house is left that the faithful old paper does not visit for the next year.

Never have we seen such interest in a contest and for the short time it has run, never has their been so large vote cast.

The piano will arrive today Yandell-Gugenheim, Co., $15 Ladies cloak, Mrs. Love $15 Ladies Hat, W. O. Tucker Furniture Co., $15 Dresser, J. L. Stewart, $15 in Photographs, Morris & Travis, $10 set of Rogers 1847, Silver knives and forks.

Haynes & Taylor do not give any present, but give a coupon of 25 votes for every one dollar spent with them.

Remember the ballot box is in the Marion Bank where you can deposit your votes if you do not want to send them to us.

For every club of five dollars we issue five thousand votes. Do not forget this.

The above is a picture of the Wellington piano to be given away October 29, to the lady securing the greatest number of votes in the Record-Press Prize Contest.

For fear the Company we first traded with would not give us such a piano as we wanted the winner to have, especially as they refused to ship it before the contest was over, that it might be inspected, we ordered this one through the Yates Bros. Agency here and it is now on exhibition at the Yandell-Gugenheim Co's store.

Remember the next count comes off next Saturday week for the ten dollars in gold to be given the one making the greatest gain since the count in July.

OBITUARY

Margarette E. Adams was born Feb. 19, 1837 married Jan. 4, 1860.

She professed faith in Christ when quiet young at Old Pleasant Hill church in Crittenden county Ky.

She first joined the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Her husband being a member of the Methodist church she joined the with him. She was truly religious, a saint after the old type. Sister Minner was of a quiet retired nature; and yet when under the blessings of the gospel of Christ she would shout praises of God. She was a good worker in the church especially in revival meetings. 6 or 7 years before her death She fell and was so disabled she never walked afterwards. she was also paralyzed and could talk but little. But amid it all, she was resigned. All was done that loving hands could do, but in vain. She was a kind neighbor, always ready to assist any one needing help. A devoted wife and a good mother. She served her generation well and leaves as a heritage to her children and many friends a beautiful Christian character and has her reward with the faithful in heaven.
